CCG bla bla bla

Quick vs CCG

Calamity, an event causing great and often sudden damage distress catastrophe, whole world is discussing one person who is president of Super power, he elected by his manifesto, people voted him, because of democracy, do you blame him because of his voters express their freedom of choice. Is democracy to blame, or same like in England" Brexit to blame", or their voters. As Socrates said, first educate your citizen then give them dialogue and freedom to choose the leader.

CCG

It was the most warmer day of the year, boiling artificial bitch produce more heat and missing horribly natural atmosphere. Especially in the present of Mr Guido who is responsible of climate and environment change, of course the president of quick. Globally climate is changing and its influence is now giving us burning skin and drought in agriculture sector, gras en trees are diminishing due to heat en drought, climate is constantly changing in the Europe. Earth is crying without her crown(Trees) en jewels (green grass) missing soul searching tranquility missing the enchanting natural songs which nature gave us.

Winning the toss our captain decided to elect to batting first, it was disaster of our batting openers are couldn't stand against their pace attack 4 best batsman were shattered like a draw leaf in the air. I missed the commitment and gutsy character in our batsman' head. I as umpiring duty at that time. I noticed, our batsman have no clue how to play fast bower because of practice of pace bowling. It is petty our captain is always absent, there is no one who teach them how to play pacer during the heat of battle. It is painfully sights to watched when 4 wicket with in 12 run it was great tragedy only D Rijkee and H Mir gave them little resistant far a while. 150 run is not enough to won the match.

H Mir,

Little gladiator fought like lion, he transcended the class and show the skill and patience, playing the under pressure is real art of his iron nerve. How he exhibited with one leg is question mark. His 49 run were face saving it gave us little bit respect. He is perfect all rounder beside he also paid the heavy duty behind the wicket, it is most difficult and responsible job in the game of cricket. He is the hero of this lost war of depressed episode.

Batting of CCG

Many year we punished them humiliated them, we should appreciate them and their patience, they waited till they gave us whole amount with rent, It is natural revenge. The captain should present to train en coach us with his vision, it is universal truth players who make mistake in net who always make mistake in matches. In last 3 matches we completely failed or Collapse in batting department. Only against VOC we had exhibited our guts & glory, only old guards had resistant otherwise it was also a flop show. Only bowling was strong otherwise we were also gone. Quick, B ten Dam, standing sweet beautifully timed lofted drives en pull that were so reminisce of his 47 victorious run. P Sekari 4 wicket 37 run, he destroyed our heart en soul with his pin point accuracy and sheer speed, no doubt, line en length was marvellous. That is all gentleman.
